Montville High School

The 1986 yearbook staff, in keeping with a decision made over twenty years ago, has titled this year's yearbook the "Walam Olum." This is an Indian word meaning "painted record." It well describes our yearbook and its story, in pictures, of the people and events of the 1985-86 school year. The title will also serve to remind us of Montville's heritage and its native past. We hope it will remind you of what the yearbook represents.

Need we say more?

Modesty is not in my contract.

I don't believe your opinion was asked for.

Go ahead, ask him what you got on the test.

Would you trust this man with the keys to your Maserati?

Whose idea was this??

Yes, this locker could be yours, if the price is right.

Trust me.

Exhibit A: Camera shyness.

Exhibit B: The epidemic spreads.

Romeo and Juliet, 1985.

Look out, Sauce!

How do you set the line-space regulator?

Mom, meet my friend, Bones.

Aren't they a good couple?

Boy, do I hate Monday mornings!

It's the attack of the killer pompom!

She's kidding, right?

Oh, God, I'm late again!

Do you know us? We're MHS seniors . . .

"You're sure there's no film in the camera, Sauce?"

The senior staff sadly regrets the necessary omission of the infamous photograph of Bill T's exploits with one canine's untidy enthusiasm. We do hope the memory will linger on.

It's not my problem!

How's it goin?

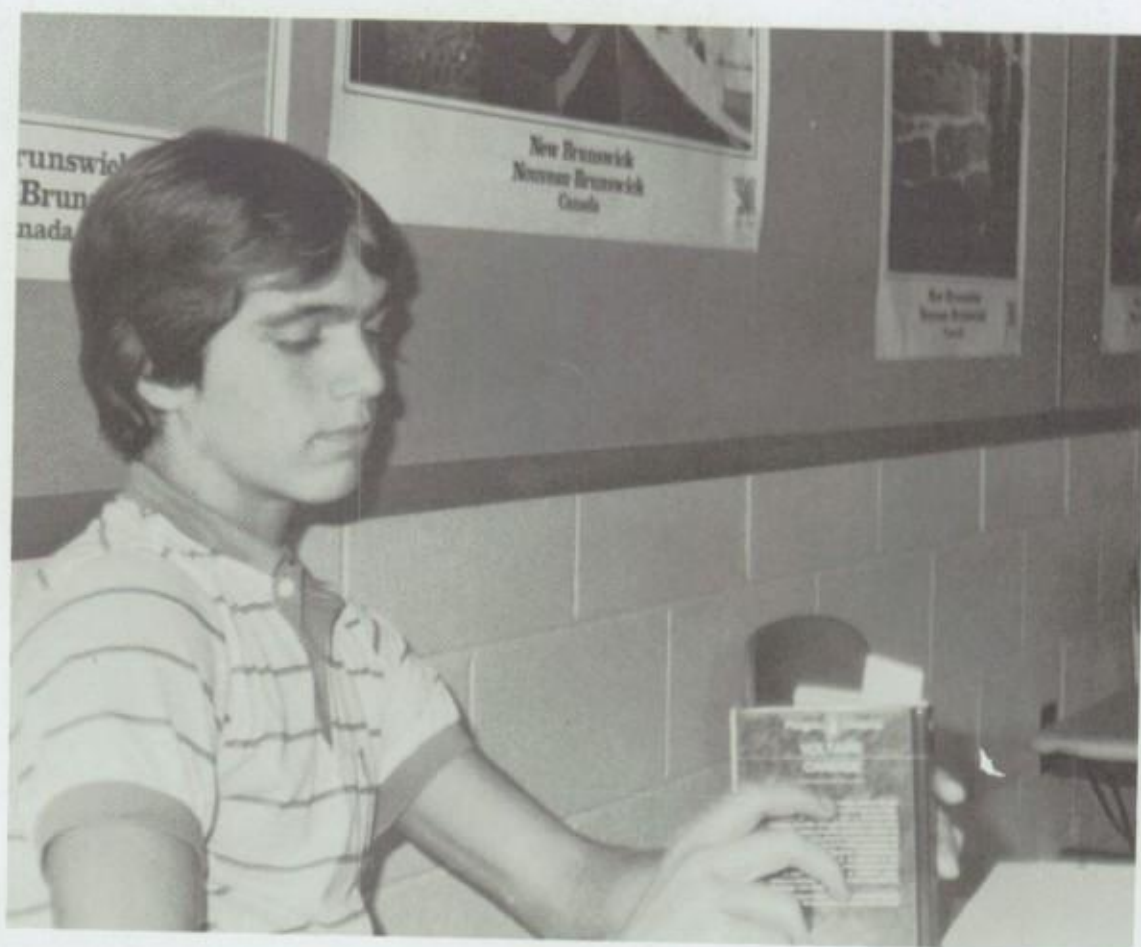

Wait! I think my leg is stuck . . .

Would you like to try that again?

Is there a problem, Mr. Sullivan . . . Sir?

Isn't literature exciting, Rich?

Just another day at M.H.S. . . .

Second lunch can be fascinating.

What is he doing down there?

No, you've got it all wrong: she stole your Mazda.

You mean . . . there's no more pizza?

Is it Friday already?

Look happy, China.

Another unwilling victim of Indian Power

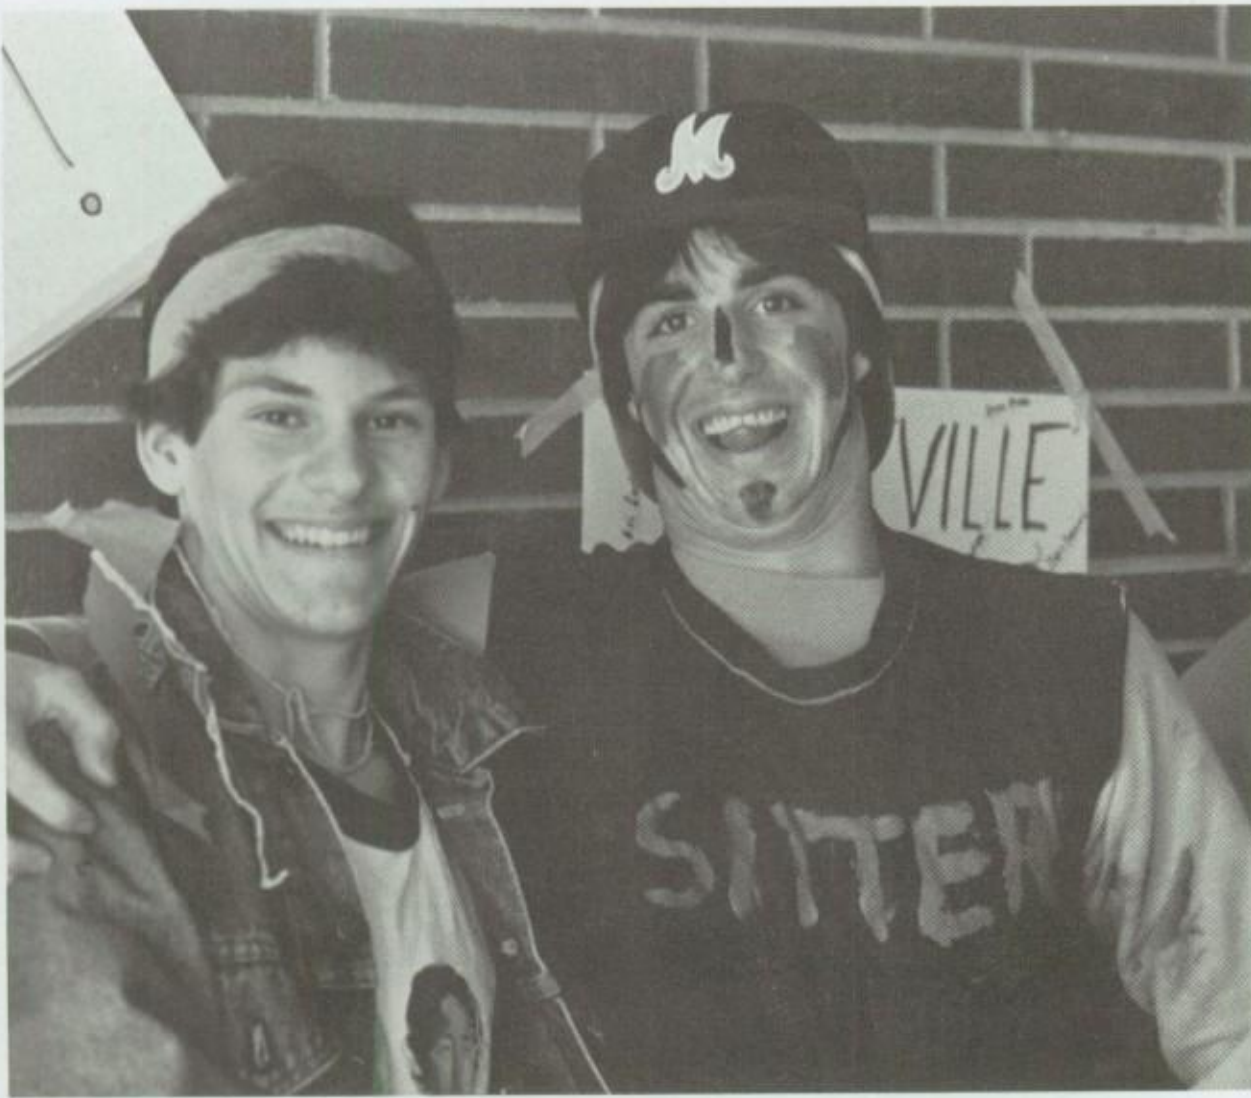

Karen, what are you doing in here?

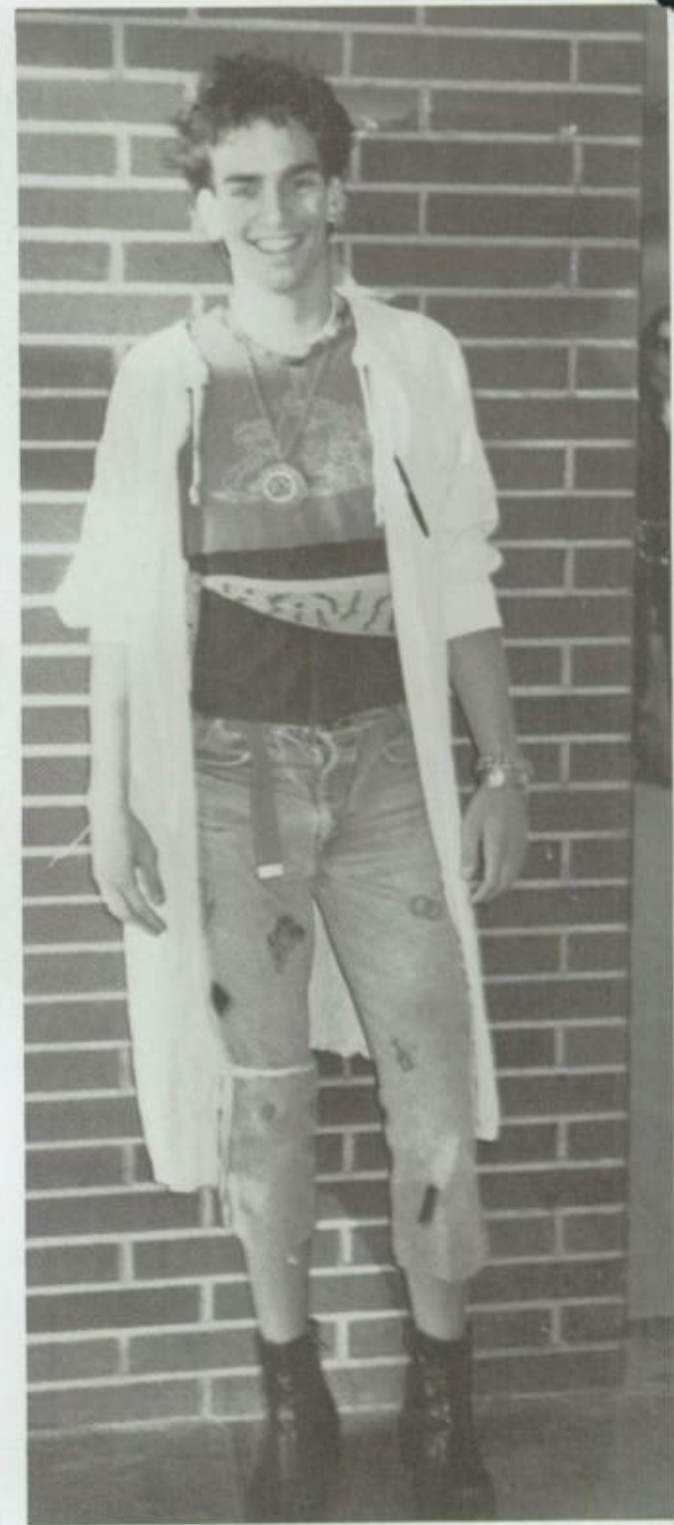

How can you resist such cuteness and talent?

Just act natural and maybe they won't notice.

The effects of A period, Monday.

The term paper's due today??

You're not really serious about this.

Do you honestly expect us to believe that?

Ladies and gentlemen, may we present the Beautiful People.

Well, that's just fine and dandy, now, isn't it?

Hey, bright eyes!

If you think I'm going to sit here and take this, I've got news for you.

Just ignore him, maybe he'll go away.

These boots were made for walking!

Smile, Lou! You're in the yearbook!

Bosom buddies, right guys?

Can you get a tan in October?

We're really just here to have a good time!

Well, that's interesting

Hey, Candice, what do you think of physics?

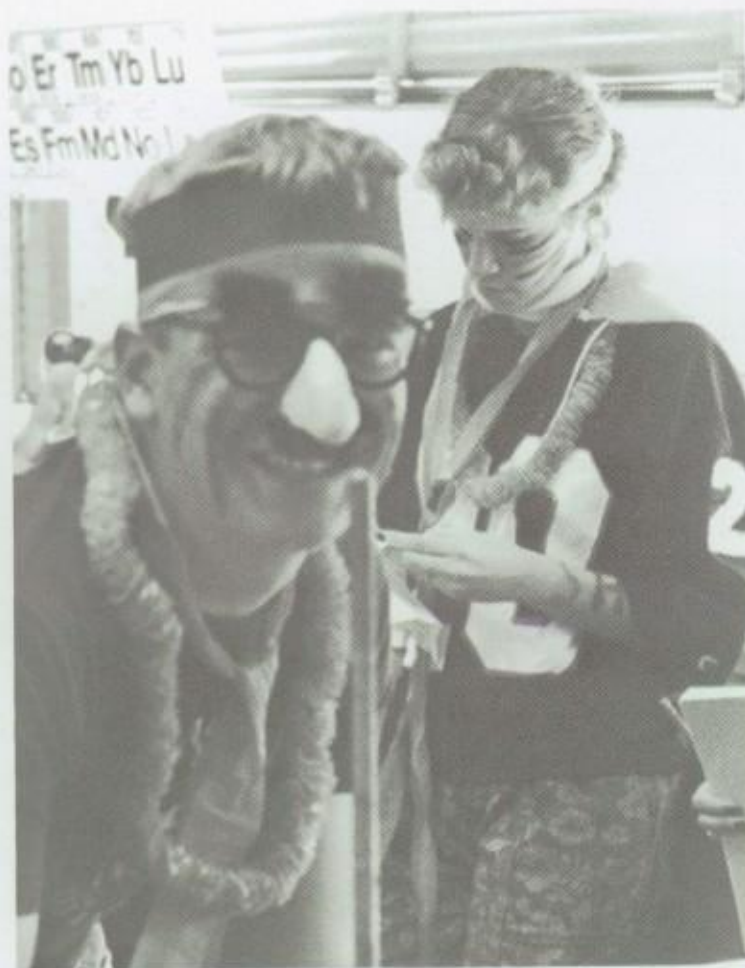

You toucha da hat, we breaka your face.

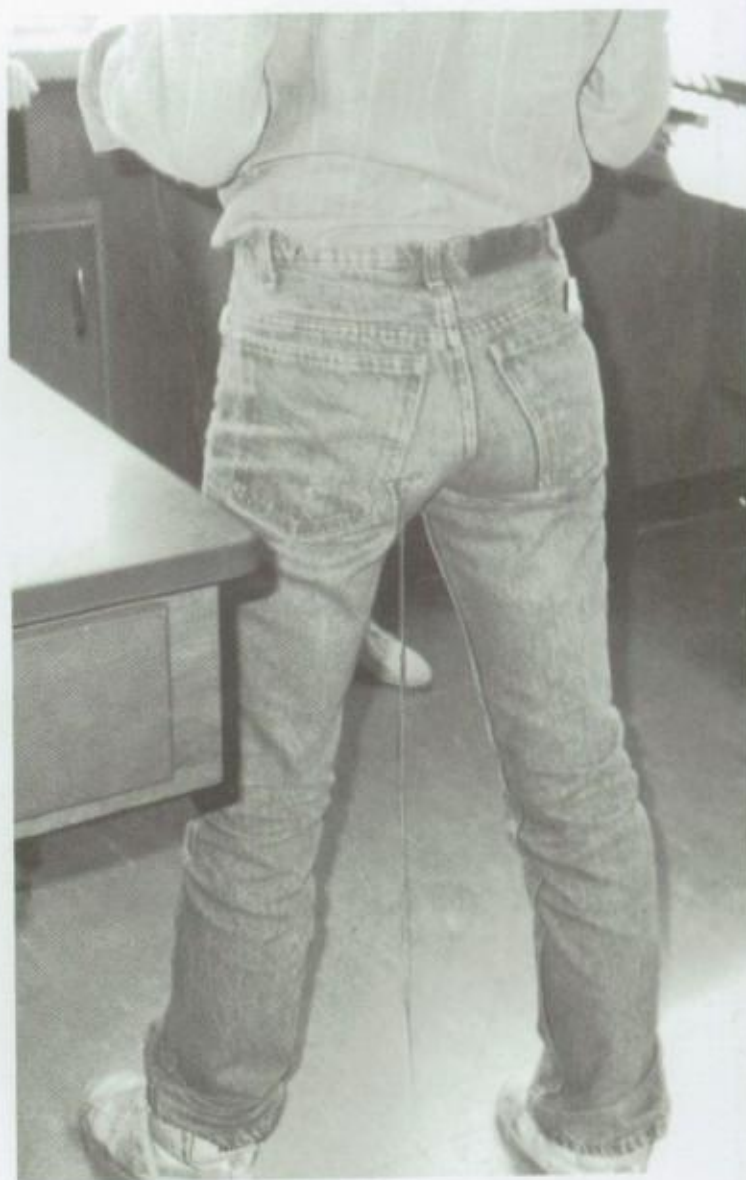

The Three Stooges ride again?

I'm so confused!

Physics can be fun.

Shrink to fit and a button-fly too . . .

VINTAGE FRIENDSHIP

Friendship, like wine, Improves with time. Years add flavor To remember and savor. There's a mellow start, Sweet or tart, Then the liquid flows. It keeps on going, slowly growing, Until the warm-ness glows. So appreciate luxury of this kind. True friendship, like wine, Is not easy to find. — Lisa A. Lepley

Submarine Leadership

USS Ohio

USS Michigan

USS Florida

General Dynamics Electric Boat Division has helped shape the course of naval history for more than three-quarters of a century. In 1900, the company delivered the first submarine HOLLAND, and since then has built over one-half of all the submarines for the U.S. Navy. In 1954, it launched the world's first nuclear submarine, NAUTILUS. It also designed the Navy's fleet of ballistic missile submarines and built GEORGE WASHINGTON, the lead ship.

Today, Electric Boat Division, as designer and builder of the new Trident missile submarine, remains the free world's leader in submarine technology, continuing to produce the most efficient and sophisticated undersea craft in the world.

So what is left to say? Honestly, this year left a lot to be desired. But, I did find a lot of friendship and love in unexpected places.
I finally have a closeness w/ mom I always wanted, and I fell in love. 6 mo. I'll never forget.
My Jr. Prom and my baby's beginning. Only the strongest survived this year, I'm still breathing so I guess I've got more going for me than I thought. The memories won't be forgotten, and some ~~scars~~^{wounds} will leave scars that won't fade -- I am woman hear me roar!
- My first job, my first love, first nervous breakdown - a lot of firsts,
a lot of lasts and a lot of growth.
I love you little baby!

Well, your guardian angel finally got her wings! I'm really going to miss you.
But, seriously, Mary, you really are special to me.
You are one of the few underclassmen I've met who was so unique. You're very sweet and (very tall) I'm glad we became friends. Don't ever change and have an unforgettable senior year. Best of everything for you and the baby. I wish very good things for your future. Take care, Ducks.
